LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation was told today by the president of the American Farm Bureau Federation that cotton growers face a difficult choice Dec. 10 when they select their 1964 program.

Charles B. Shuman, the national president, spoke at the final general assembly of the state meeting. He said growers must choose between continuation of the present "market-wrecking" quota program with high level price supports and small acreage allotments, or a program which would cut price supports well below this year's level but would retain the same small acreage allotments.

Since 1961 when the secretary of agriculture raised the support price, Shuman said, cotton exports have been cut in half, the use of synthetic fibers on the domestic market has increased by more than a third, and carryover stocks of cotton have almost doubled.

Shuman said that despite acreage cuts, growers have upped the cotton crop with a higher production per acre.

"Because of the unsatisfactory alternatives, the American Farm Bureau Federation will not attempt to advise growers how to vote in the Dec. 10 referendum," Shuman said.

The president of the Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation, Harold Ohlendorf of Osceola, outlined some of the most pressing problems facing the state's farmers.

Ohlendorf said Monday during an interview that these problems are a need for a more competitive cotton market, a flexible policy in acreage controls and more revenue for rural roads in Arkansas.

He said the cotton surplus must be cut down by increased exports and new markets.

Ohlendorf said farmers need a price support program at a level of production, but he said it should not be an extreme "either way."

"We want some flexibility so the farmer can produce what his farm produces best," he said.

About $800 million in farm products move over rural roads in the state each year, Ohlendorf said, and 600 to 700 miles of rural roads are in bad need of repair.

Arkansas, he said, is becoming one of the biggest livestock-producing states in the Midwest.

Ten county Farm Bureaus were signed out Monday for attaining all-time high memberships in 1963. They were Drew, Desha, Pulaski, Yell, Perry, Prairie, Pike and Howard counties.

Craighead County Farm Bureau won the Federation's safety award. Winners in the local farm products promotion programs went to Stone in poultry, Prairie in rice, Hempstead in forestry, Pulaski in dairy products, Searcy and Boone in red meats and Mississippi in cotton.

Announced as Miss Fluffy Rice for 1963-64 was Miss Vernell Lumpkin of Weiner. She won a $150 cash prize.

Policeman, Communist Laid to Rest

By ROBERT H. JOHNSON JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Like the President with whom their fate became inextricably linked, the hero cop and the drifting Communist went to their rest Monday.

President John F. Kennedy was buried in the solemn majesty of a nation's grief in Arlington National Cemetery.

The cop went to his rest in a gentle hilltop in South Dallas — in a grave still unmarked with a stone.

And the Communist was buried almost furtively in simple ceremonies in a Fort Worth graveyard.

The President, authorities said, was shot to death Friday by the Communist, Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, who drifted into the Marine Corps and out with an undesirable discharge, into Soviet Russia with a desire to change his citizenship and out when he pleaded with the State Department to let him come home.

The policeman, Patrolman J. D. Tippit, met Oswald about three miles from the assassination scene Friday and was shot to death when he stopped him for questioning — probably after hearing a description of the assassin on his prowl car radio.

Soon Oswald was charged with murdering both the President and the patrolman — and 36 hours later he, too, was dead, gunned down by a fourth man who burst into the national tragedy.

He was Jack Ruby, 32, Dallas strip joint owner. Some said he was the assassin.

Oswald Tried to Get Cuban Visa

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Cuban government said Monday night that Lee Harvey Oswald, accused of assassinating President John F. Kennedy, tried Sept. 27 to get a visa to go through Cuba on the way to the Soviet Union.

Oswald's request was turned down, the Cuban government said in a statement broadcast by Havana radio and monitored in Miami.

Foreign Minister Raul Roa said the request was not granted because Oswald did not have authorization from the Soviet Union.

U.S., French Relations May Improve

By RICHARD K. OMALLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — A thaw in the chilly U.S.-French relations appears possible following the announcement that Presidents Johnson and Charles de Gaulle will meet here early next year.

The surprise announcement came from President Johnson after he had spent 18 minutes in private conference with the French president at a reception late Monday for foreign dignitaries who attended President John F. Kennedy's funeral.

Johnson, obviously plunging into the monumental tasks before him with rapidity, came out from the conference room and said, "We have decided he would come back and talk more early next year." To give it further emphasis he told newsmen: "Sure, you can quote me."

Some Notes on Toughest Job in Entire World—That of Being President of U.S.

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Some notes on "the world's toughest job"—the presidency of the United States:

Despite the awful pressures of the post, 27 of the 34 men who served as president before Lyndon B. Johnson lived to be over 60—and three are still alive.

Of the eight who died in office, four were felled by assassins.

The most durable president to date was John Adams, variously known as "Atlas of Independence," "His Rotundity," and "Old Sink or Swim." He lived 90 years and 295 days and died on the same 4th of July as did Thomas Jefferson, who was 83.

The oldest president to die in office, William Henry Harrison, 68, "Old Tippecanoe," succumbed to pneumonia exactly a month after he took office on March 4, 1841. He caught cold after riding to the Capitol on a white horse in stormy weather and delivering the longest inaugural message on record—8,578 words.

His successor, John Tyler, who served out his term, lived to be 71. Tyler had two wives. He had 15 children, the largest number of any president. Seven of the children were born during the 16 years he survived after leaving the White House.

Of the three presidents besides William Henry Harrison who died of natural causes while in office, only one, Warren G. Harding, 57, was under 60. Zachary Taylor was 56, Franklin D. Roosevelt, 63.

At 46, John F. Kennedy, the youngest man ever elected president, was also the youngest to die. He was the second Democrat to die in office, the first slain while in power.

The second youngest president to die was James A. Garfield, killed by an assassin at the age of 49.

Sixteen past presidents, including the three now living, survived to be 70 or over. Five made it to 80 or more, among them Herbert Hoover.

Abraham Lincoln and John F. Kennedy died in coma within a short period after being shot by assassins.

Garfield lived for 80 days. President William McKinley lived for eight days after he was shot Sept. 6, 1901, at the Pan-American Exposition in Buffalo, N.Y.

Man Charged in Fatal Shooting

MARKED TREE, Ark. (AP) — Lin Coleman, 54, of Marked Tree, charged in the fatal shooting Saturday of Ray Harp, 44, also of Marked Tree, has been bound over to the March term of Poinsett Circuit Court.

Coleman waived preliminary hearing on a first-degree murder charge.

Coleman was charged with shooting Harp outside the Coleman tavern Saturday. Authorities said Harp, a used car salesman, had argued inside the tavern with Coleman's 17-year-old son, James. Coleman was released Sunday on bond of $5,000.

Governors Asked to Aid Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the first speech of his presidency, Lyndon B. Johnson called on 35 of the nation's governors to support the civil rights and tax cut programs of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Johnson's appeal came at a hastily called closed meeting Monday night as many of the governors prepared to return home from Kennedy's funeral.

Excerpts of the speech released later by the White House made no mention of civil rights and the $11 billion tax cut. But the governors said the President made specific appeals for these two programs.

Johnson received a standing ovation following the 20-minute speech.

Asking the governors' help and cooperation in the days ahead, Johnson said he planned to continue most Kennedy policies—especially in the area of foreign policy.

Johnson said that the U.S. government "will work only when people are willing to cooperate and work together for the common good." Noting that "our whole system has gone on trial," Johnson said:

"If they (the people) insist on glaring at each other, refusing to work together, and standing firmly on prerogatives and forgetting responsibilities, the nation will quickly be paralyzed."

The President also told the governors that "continuity without confusion has got to be our password and has to be the key to our system."

In the audience were two Republican presidential possibilities, Govs. Nelson Rockefeller of New York and William Scranton of Pennsylvania.

Both pledged their support to Johnson in seeking congressional passage of an omnibus civil rights bill and the tax reduction program.

Gops Call a Truce in Politics

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona say they plan no political speeches for a month in deference to the late President John F. Kennedy.

Rockefeller, who has declared himself a candidate for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, said Monday he will not push his candidacy during the 30-day period of mourning which he has decreed for New York State.

Goldwater, who leads polls as a potential GOP presidential nominee but has yet to declare himself in the running, told a reporter he has canceled three television appearances and will make no more political speeches this year.

Since the assassination of Kennedy "there is an absence of anything political to talk about," Goldwater said.

Rockefeller said in a statement that during the 30-day mourning period "I shall not participate personally in any public activity in connection with the Republican presidential nomination, nor in any other public activities with the exception of those falling within my official duties as governor of New York State."

Goldwater said that so far as he is concerned, the tragic sequence of events has removed the Kennedy administration as an issue.

"We want to see what President Johnson will do," he said. "We do not know what course he will take, whether he will change some of them."

"We want to give him all of the room he needs to operate and all of the help he needs. It would not be fair for the opposing party to heckle him while he is getting organized in his new job. Let's give him a couple of months to see what he can do."

Chairman William E. Miller postponed a Dec. 11-14 meeting of the National Republican Committee and said "total suspension of partisan political activity is called for" during the period of mourning.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., wrote Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., Monday suggesting that the conference of all GOP senators pledge political silence for the remainder of the year.

Saltonstall, who heads the conference, is expected to react favorably. Scott is a former Republican national chairman.

Scott said he thought the Republicans could be of service to Johnson "by sparing the President the need to divert his attention from matters of national security as might be occasioned by political addresses around the country during the remainder of this calendar year."

Goldwater thought it too early to tell how Kennedy's death will affect the 1964 political picture. As one credited with strong support in the South, he said that much may depend on what Johnson does about civil rights and other issues.

Johnson Moves Full Time Into Handling Government Affairs

Johnson Orders Full Report on Both Slayings

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has ordered the FBI to prepare a detailed report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and that the people be told all the facts.

The report is to cover, too, the fatal shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused slayer of the late president, the White House announced Monday.

Johnson has "directed all federal agencies to cooperate," the White House said.

The announcement came after Rep. Hale Boggs of Louisiana, the assistant House Democratic leader, suggested a high-level congressional investigation of Kennedy's assassination.

Citing the fact that the killing of Oswald, 24, aborted the normal public disclosure and weighing of evidence in a trial, Boggs said he thinks Congress should conduct a careful inquiry.

Couldn't Find Man With Rifle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Police raced to the roof of the 7-story Internal Revenue Service Building today in response to a report that a man had been seen on the roof with a weapon.

The roof overlooks the Justice Department entrance used by Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, brother of the assassinated President.

Officers of the General Services Administration found no one on the red-tiled roof. But officer David M. Randall said he had seen a man with what looked like a weapon when he inspected the roof from a tower of the adjacent Old Post Office Building.

The search apparently began when an ITRNL Revenue Service telephone operator called the IRS guard office with a report that someone had telephoned that a man had been seen on the roof.

The search centered on a corner of the roof overlooking the intersection of 10th Street and Constitution Avenue. Across 10th Street, seven stories down, is the door through which Robert Kennedy enters and leaves the Justice Department.

Kennedy, still in mourning over the death of his brother, had not come to the department at the time of the alert.

Police indicated they would keep an all-day watch on the roof and inspect elevators and vacant rooms in the Internal Revenue Service Building.

Funds for Widow of Policeman

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — President Johnson will join members of the Philadelphia Eagles football team in contributing funds to the widow of Dallas policeman J. D. Tippit, according to Pete Retzlaff, president of the National Football League Players' Association.

The Eagles disclosed over the weekend they will contribute part of their pay to the widow of the patrolman slain by the man accused of murdering President John F. Kennedy. Cliff Carter, one of President Johnson's aides, called Retzlaff and said the chief executive wanted to join the players.

Wirges Asks Review of Sentence

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Publisher Gene Wirges of Morrilton asked the Arkansas Supreme Court today to review a 10-day jail sentence he received for contempt of court because he refused to name the author of a paper column involved in a libel suit.

Circuit Judge Wiley W. Bean assessed the penalty against Wirges and Wirges contends in his petition for review that Bean is prejudiced against him.

The contempt sentence grew out of a libel suit filed against Wirges by Conway County Judge Tom Scott. Scott received a $200,000 damage award.

Wirges' petition to the Supreme Court today said he had asked Bean to disqualify himself in the contempt proceedings, but Bean refused. Bean had stepped aside in the libel suit trial.

Involved is the "Birdtown Birdie" Column and Wirges testified in the libel trial that he did not want to name the author because he feared the author might be subjected to pressure.

The court later ordered Wirges to name the author and Wirges refused.

In another development in the complicated legal maneuvering between Wirges and Conway County officialdom, the Supreme Court reinstated today Wirges' petition for an order directing Bean to order preparations of a transcript of a proceeding last March 23 at which Bean allegedly "dressed down" Wirges.

The Supreme Court dismissed this petition Oct. 21, because, it said Wirges had not followed proper procedure.

Wirges' attorney argued in a request for reinstatement that the Supreme Court should at least hear his arguments as to why he felt the petition should be allowed.

Today's reinstatement indicated the Supreme Court agreed with this view.

Operations Shifted to White House

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lyndon B. Johnson moved full-time into the workaday affairs of the presidency today and signaled the shift by transferring operations to the oval office of chief executives in the White House.

He was early on the job, driving into the executive mansion grounds at 8:45 a.m., just 11 hours after the close of a long day given in large part to last honors for his slain predecessor, John F. Kennedy, and to somewhat ceremonial contracts with world leaders who came to mourn.

On tap for the first day in the new office were meetings with foreign dignitaries and preparation of an address Wednesday to a joint session of Congress.

Johnson, in his first speech since becoming chief executive, made evident Monday night his belief that the Kennedy assassination puts the American system to a severe test and must prompt renewed efforts to prove that the system, despite one sniper's act, is superior to any other.

Beyond that, Johnson pledged "continuity without confusion" — a continuation of Kennedy administration programs and policy aims without any immediate shakeup of top officials that might puzzle and perturb the nation and the world.

Johnson's assessment of the needs of the day was delivered off the cuff to 35 state governors who met with him long after sunset.

This was not his final meeting of the busy day. His scheduled was topped off by a late evening session with Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon and the Council of Economic Advisers. This meeting took up the tax cut proposal and the broad outlines of the federal budget that will go to Congress in January.

Johnson headed for his home in the Spring Valley section of the city at 10:45 p.m., giving every sign that, even before moving into the White House, he was operating under a full head of steam.

For today, Johnson lined up conferences with some of the many foreign dignitaries who flew to Washington for the Kennedy funeral.

Johnson arranged to visit with the new British prime minister, Sir Alec Douglas-Home; with the president of the Philippines, Diosdado Macapagal, and with the new West German chancellor, Ludwig Erhard.

The President saw all three — and many more — at a reception Monday night at the State Department, before he met with the governors.

In addition to greeting all foreign delegates to the Kennedy funeral, Johnson spent 18 minutes privately with President Charles de Gaulle of France, eight minutes with Prime Minister Lester Pearson of Canada and 12 minutes with Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda of Japan.

Little Change in Regular Grid Standings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Due to cancellations and postponements in respect to the memory of the late President Kennedy, only a handful of college football games were played last weekend. As a result there were few changes in the weekly Associated Press poll.

Texas, due to end its regular season Thursday in its usual test with Texas A&M, remained in the No. 1 position as the only major unbeaten and untied team in the nation. The final poll will be held next week.

With the fate of the Army-Navy game still hanging in the balance, awaiting a final decision from Washington, Navy clung to second place. It was considered likely that Navy would be invited to the Cotton Bowl for a New Year's Day game with Texas if the Middles beat the Cadets.

Mississippi, which had an open date before Saturday's final game with Mississippi State, remained in the No. 3 spot. Then came Michigan State, whose important Big Ten finale with Illinois was put off until Thursday.

Pittsburgh's game with Penn State was postponed to Dec. 7, but the Panthers held position No. 5. Pitt plays Miami, Fla. Saturday night. Alabama, idle since Nov. 18, moved up a peg to No. 6 with an important game coming up Saturday against Auburn.

The only big shuffle resulted in Nebraska, a 29-20 winner over Oklahoma for the Big Eight title, moving up to No. 7 from 10th a week ago. Oklahoma, which had been No. 6, fell to No. 10.

Illinois, waiting for the big game with Michigan State, remained No. 8, followed by Auburn which defeated Florida State 21-15.

Nebraska is the only team among the Top Ten to have finished its regular schedule.

Jonesboro Wins Over Wynne Team

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Jonesboro displayed its scoring punch for three quarters, then let Wynne put on the touchdown show during the last quarter as the Hurricane won 27-13 Monday night.

Halfbacks Bobby Hutchison and Johnny Allison scored for Jonesboro on runs of nine and three yards, quarterback Jeff Duncan added another Hurricane score with a four yard run, and the last touchdown came on a 14-yard pass from Duncan to end John Gels.

Hurricane quarterback Tony Snow, who normally kicks extra points, lined up to kick after all four Jonesboro touchdowns but each time he took a direct snap and tossed the ball to end Bobby McDaniel. The play got the extra point the first three times.

Doing the fourth quarter scoring for Wynne were end James Dacus who caught a 12-yard pass from Bobby Owen, and halfback Billy Davis on a six-yard run around left end.

Jonesboro's record went to 3-8 and Wynne lost its seventh straight, to make a 1-8-1 season.

Three Games on Tap in Conference

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The youthful Texas Aggies will be trying hard for an upset against Texas Thursday but if they don't make it there'll be little said. No one expects them to, anyway.

But come 1964 and it will be expected because the Aggies are loaded with promising sophomores and have a good freshman team coming up.

Texas has 14 seniors on its three-deep squad, the Aggies have only six. So, graduation should serve to equal things up next year.

Texas, with all its veteran manpower, has a tough fullback problem. Regular Harold Philipp is nursing an ankle injury and Tommy Stockton, who starred in the Texas Christian game, has an inflamed elbow.

The Aggies are in top shape and ready to go.

Four other conference members play games Saturday, with Southern Methodist invading Fort Worth for a clash with Texas Christian and Baylor going to Houston to play Rice.

Arkansas and Texas Tech have finished the season.

Baylor was in much better shape than it was in its last game—the 19-7 loss to Kentucky Wizard pass—receiver Larry Elkins was able to take part in a workout for the first time in three weeks.

Rice got serious and scrimmaged all the workout time Monday. Fullbacks Russ Wyatt and Paul Piper cooked up some running trouble for Baylor.

Texas Christian practiced in secret, so the Frogs must be preparing something new to throw at Southern Methodist.

It's a good thing. The old stuff never beat anybody much.

Southern Methodist held a light drill and about the only important business was naming Bob Dwyer, Bill Harlap, Billy Cannon and John Hughes co-captains.

Reaction in Sports to U.S. Tragedy

By JIM BECKER

"We all feel like we have been hit in the pit of the stomach," said Navy Coach Wayne Hardin. "We haven't an inkling about playing the game."

Army Coach Paul Dietzel said his team was "waiting for a decision."

The decision on whether to play the Army-Navy football game, scheduled for Saturday in Philadelphia, will have to come from the Pentagon. It may come today.

Officials of both service academies have said they are in favor of playing, since they feel that President Kennedy had a great interest in football and sports generally. The late President attended the last two games.

However, the next 30 days have been designated as a period of mourning for the armed services.

Auburn has the inside track on an Orange Bowl bid, bowl officials said, if the Tigers put up a good show against Alabama in the final game Saturday. Auburn is ranked No. 9, Alabama No. 6.

Bama is a likely participant in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans, as is Mississippi.

If Auburn should stumble badly against its state rival, the Orange Bowl sponsors may look in Pitt's direction. The Panthers play Miami Saturday night, in their next-to-last game. They also have been mentioned for the Gator Bowl.

Michigan State went back to work late Monday to prepare for the postponed meeting with Illinois, now scheduled for Thanksgiving Day, that will settle the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl assignment—but the squad showed none of its usual zest and high spirits.

"This wasn't a normal day," Coach Duffy Daugherty said. "They had just come from watching the funeral of the President on television."

Daugherty said further practice sessions would be closed to fans and newsmen, as the coaches try to build up enthusiasm again for the game.

Illinois delayed its workout until after burial ceremonies were ended.

Hope-Nashville Game 8 p.m. Wednesday

The traditional football classic between the Hope Bobcats and the Nashville Scrappers will be played at 8 o'clock Wednesday night at Hammons Stadium. In the past it had been played on Thanksgiving afternoon.

Hope's District 4-AA champions are not expected to have much trouble with the Scrappers who are not having one of their better years.

About the only way to compare the two teams is with three common opponents. Hope easily defeated DeQueen which handed Nashville a 21-0 loss. The Bobcats had a fairly rough time downing Magnolia which beat the Scrappers 28 to 7. Arkadelphia barely edged Nashville 7 to 6 and Hope downed the Badgers 20 to 6.

The Bobcats should know by now that the Scrappers always spell trouble and usually play their best game against them. So Hope has its work cut out Wednesday night for perhaps its most successful season in history.

Texans Gets Nod to Stay Unbeaten

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Most of the major bowl berths and conference titles are still undecided going into the last big weekend of the college football season. A majority of last week's scheduled settlers were postponed because of the death of President Kennedy.

Here are the winners for the remainder of the season:

Texas over Texas A&M: If Tommy Ford can't outrun the determined Cadets Thanksgiving Day, then Tony Crosby will kick across the decisive points. Texas takes a perfect record into the Cotton Bowl game.

Navy over Army: The Middles successfully complete their Drive for Five Saturday. Army, strictly an infantry aggregation, has neither an aerial offense nor anti-aircraft weapons and Roger Staubach not only can scramble and run but he also can pass.

Harvard over Yale: This is one of the postponed games that will be played Saturday. The late President's Alma Mater will triumph decisively.

Syracuse over Notre Dame: It took most of the season but Syracuse's backfield questions all have been answered, which is bad news for Notre Dame. The scene is Yankee Stadium on Thursday.

Michigan State over Illinois: The Spartans grab the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl assignment in one swoop.

Alabama over Auburn: A Saturday bruiser, and Alabama has the corner on muscles.

Mississippi over Mississippi State: In recent years this has been a mere workout for Ole Miss., always en route to a New Year's Day bowl contest. This Saturday it will be a rugged affair but the result will be the same.

Decision Will Have to Wait

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) — Representatives of the Air Force Academy and University of Colorado have canceled Tuesday's meeting at which they were to decide when their football teams would meet.

A spokesman for the Academy said permission had not been received from Washington to hold the game, originally scheduled for last Saturday. Military services were ordered to cancel social activities and entertainment for 30 days after President Kennedy's assassination.

Hatton Renamed at Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — Paul Richards, general manager of the Houston Colts, said today Grady Hatton will return as manager of the Oklahoma City 89ers farm club for the 1964 season.

Hatton led the 89ers to the Pacific Coast League baseball championship last season.

Travelers' Brown Shares a Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Paul Brown of the Arkansas Travelers shared the shutout pitching leadership of the International Baseball League last season, official figures released today show.

Brown and Nelson Chittum of Rochester both had six shutouts. Top winner in the league was William Smith of Syracuse, who won 14 of 16 decisions.

Davis Leads Win for Teachers

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — Tom Davis lead Arkansas State Teachers to a come-from-behind second half Monday night to defeat East Texas Baptist College 34-7.

Davis poured through 30 points for the Bears. The visitors were ahead 31-20 at the half, but Teachers closed the gap and went ahead early in the second half. The Bears went ahead to stay with 6:29 left. Kenny Knipp put in 15 for the Texans, while the Bears' Freddie White scored 24.

When Buick builds a LeSabre--Buick builds a high-priced car, and puts a low price on it.

Lots of cars are in LeSabre's price class, but that's where the resemblance ends. For instance: Does anybody else in LeSabre's class treat you to that gentle Buick ride or impressive Buick performance and new gas economy? No. And who else gives you 1.5-inch wheels, finned aluminum front brakes, extra cushioning for middle-seat travelers, and separate heat ducts and controls for the rear seat? Right again: Nobody in LeSabre's field but LeSabre. If all this makes you think a LeSabre would look awfully nice in your garage, you should see how nicely it fits a budget. CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — Hendrix College built up a huge lead in the first half and coasted to a 93-65 victory Monday night over Bethel College of McKenzie, Tenn.

Never in trouble, the Warriors led by as much as 32 points during the first half.

Joe Murphy scored 18 for Hendrix, while Ernie Owen marked up 19 for Bethel. Five Warriors broke into the double figures in scoring.

to determine the facts, assemble them for public consideration and try to answer any questions that may linger in Americans' minds.

Authorities in Dallas, where a sniper's rifle bullets ended Kennedy's life Friday, say the evidence is conclusive and that the case is closed—so far as the question of Oswald's guilt or innocence is concerned.

Perhaps feeling that there is still some uneasiness in the public mind, Dallas Police Chief Jesse Curry said his department intends to make all the evidence public unless federal agencies want some withheld.

A further problem is the persistent campaign by some Soviet propaganda agencies to depict the killing of Oswald, who had steadily protested his innocence, as part of a right-wing plot that took the president's life.

Boggs said he favors a "blue-ribbon inquiry, far above any suggestion of partisanship."

Rep. William H. Ayres, R-Ohio, said he will introduce legislation making any assault on the president, vice president or other high executive or judicial officers a federal crime. Such a statute would guarantee quick FBI action in any such case, Ayres said.

The killing of the President was considered likely to revive interest in a bill now pending in the Senate Commerce Committee to regulate the sale of firearms by mail.

The FBI has said the rifle with which the President was shot was bought by mail.

The pending bill, by Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., would require persons buying firearms by mail to certify they were not under 18, had not been convicted of a felony and that the purchase would not violate local law.

Black Hawks Running Off With League

MONTREAL (AP)—The Chicago Black Hawks, running away with the National Hockey League race and scoring goals at a season record pace, placed six men in the top ten scoring list, statistics showed today.

Hawks rank 1-2 in points and 1-2-3 in goals. Bobby Hull with 31 and Stan Mikita with 30 top the points makers, and Hull, 14, Mikita, 13, and Kenny Wharham, 12, are the leading goal makers.

The Hawks, leading the league by nine points, have scored 73 goals in 19 games. At that rate they would have 269 goals for the season, topping the record 259 scored by the Montreal Canadiens in 1960-61.

At the same point last year, the Hawks also led the league, but with only 50 goals.

Chicago goalies Glenn Hall and Dennis DeJordy also top the league, with a goals against average of 2.11.

Thinks Mira All American Anyway

By BEN FUNK

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Is George Mira, Miami's All-America a year ago, still a topnotch quarterback in spite of his team's 3-5 record this season?

Here's how his coach, Andy Gustafson, answers the question:

"Despite every conceivable handicap, George has been far greater than he was in 1962. There is no doubt that he is the nation's greatest passing quarterback."

"If you don't believe it, wait and see who is the No. 1 choice in the National Football League draft."

Unquestionably, any pro club would jump at the chance to grab the 6-foot-2, 182-pound bomber whose accurate aerial shots have propelled him close to the top of the list among college football's all-time great passers.

The San Francisco 49ers reportedly have a fat contract ready for Mira if they get first call in the NFL draft.

Mira's individual statistics seem to support Gustafson's stand.

Playing on a comparatively weak team, he has completed 123 passes in eight games for 1,548 yards.

That's 23 more completions and 200 more yards than he got in the first eight games last year, when Miami had compiled a 6-2 record. His percentage this season is .508, compared with .479 last season.

In total offense, he has 1,675 yards against 1,465 in 1962.

Biggest among Mira's handicaps in his fight to repeat as an All-America has been a lack of blocking in many games. He has made some of his most sensational throws while virtually running for his life from enemy rushers.

Ruby killed Oswald out of grief over the President's death. Others said the cause of his grief was fear the city's sadness would cost him holiday business.

Only a handful of relatives watched Oswald's inexpensive coffin lowered into the grave in Fort Worth. They were his mother, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald; his widow, Marina, 22; their two small daughters, and his brother, Robert Oswald of Denton. They wept.

The Rev. Louis Sanders, executive secretary of the Fort Worth Council of Churches, conducted the brief services—agreeing to do so when, apparently, no other minister would for the avowed Marxist, probable atheist.

Four hundred persons—police—men in sharply creased uniforms behind the small family—were admitted to the small Baptist church for Tippit's funeral. Outside another 1,000 stood silently in the warm November afternoon.

Fifteen motorcycle policemen escorted Tippit to his grave.

Turning away at the end, Chief Jesse Curry said: "He was an ideal officer...a man of very fine morals."

His widow, slender, blue-eyed and brunette—with her three children—turned away at last, too.

probably in February, and arrangements had been completed. It appeared the two men swiftly came to agreement on the need for early talks to clear up standing differences between the two long-time allies.

The tall French president was given the center of attention at the reception, as he has been since he arrived Sunday for the funeral. He was in relaxed, chatty form.

Announcement of the meeting came amid general speculation on how Johnson and De Gaulle will get along.

The answer would appear to be that they will get along well personally, but any changes in policy would have to come from the American side.

De Gaulle, who regards world affairs in the broad, historic sense, is a stubborn man with fixed ideas, devoted to France. He is not malleable, as he frequently illustrated in his differences with Kennedy.

Problems confronting Kennedy's successor and the French chief of state are manifold, but some of the larger ones are De Gaulle's go-it-alone atomic defense policy, his uncooperative attitude toward the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, his chilly attitude toward the limited nuclear test ban treaty and his lofty position on the Common Market.

But De Gaulle never hesitates to make it clear that in any showdown France would come quickly to America's side.

Johnson has the reputation of being a seasoned, astute politician who knows how to work with people and get them to work for him. He also has the reputation of being a compromiser, at least in the realm of domestic politics.

Dr. George Balentine, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, heard the couple's vows in front of the fireplace which was covered with a Sunburst of Palm Fern and flanked in each side with potted Fern trees. The mantle held a large fan shaped arrangement of white ruffled gladioli with five branched candelabras on each side.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Perry Caston of Hope. Parents of the bride-groom are Mr. and Mrs. Rodney E. Vick of Ft. Smith, Arkansas.

Mrs. H. A. Spraggins, pianist provided pre-nuptial music and the traditional wedding march- es.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length gown of white peau de sole fashioned with bateau neck- line, fitted waist and long sleeves tapering to points over her hands. Motifs of Alencon lace outlined with seed pearls trim- med the neckline and bouffant skirt. Her veil of illusion fell from a Coif of peau de sole ap- pliqued with Alencon lace and seed pearls. She carried a White Bible topped with a Crescent of white ruffled carnations center- ed with a white orchid. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Mary Alice Caston was her sisters maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a sheath dress of Autumn Rose Velvet, with matching Pill box hat. She carried a Crescent of pink ruffled carnations. Dyed to match satin slippers com- pleted her ensemble.

Barry Crow of Camden, Ar- kansas was best man.

Mrs. Vick, mother of the bridegroom chose a Dior blue Shandlay sheath dress with gold accessories. Her corsage was a white cymbidium orchid.

Following the ceremony guests were invited into the dining room for the reception. The bride's table was covered with a floor length cloth of white nylon marquisette over satin. Centering the table was an ar- rangement of which stock flank- ed on each side with white ta- pers in silver candelabras. The two-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and was served by Mrs. H. A. Spraggins. At the op- posite end of table punch was served from a large silver bowl by Mrs. George Balentine.

Mrs. Charles Gough and Mrs. Don Smith, sisters of the bride, served chocolate cake and coffee from the grooms table in the breakfast room.

Proposes Way to Raise Funds

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A San Francisco advertising man proposed today that five million 50-cent pieces be struck off in memory of the late President Kennedy.

The pieces should be sold for $1 to raise money for scholar- ships, assistance to the family of the Dallas policeman killed in capturing Kennedy's accused assassin and to aid the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald, ad- vertising man Al Toth proposed in a letter to the examiner.

Toth said he believes every- one would agree with the first two objectives.

"As for the third, the Oswald widow and children knew nothing of the horrible plot concoct- ed by Oswald....It would give notice to the world that we are a humane and compassionate people," Toth said.

SWAMP HER!

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: I married into a family that just doesn't care. I am 17, my husband 19 and we've been married a year. All of this time, except for a month or two we've lived with his folks simply because we lacked the money to do otherwise. They don't give a darn how they dress, keep house or look. My husband is different in that he sees things the way I do.

My family was poor but we were always clean and neat even though our clothes might be faded and worn. I learned from my mother to keep a house nice and prepare good meals. If I didn't sweep and dust there would be inches of dirt on everything, including the dining table. But I no sooner tidy things up than in comes one of my sisters-in-law and her kids, leaving things in a worse mess than before.

The whole family, except my husband and myself, curse. We attend church—me regularly, him frequently. All this back- sliding in laws, in home and religious life, gets me down. We're still paying off on the car, wedding ring and school tuition—I'm taking a corre- spondence course. We also have a monthly grocery bill since we and the in-laws go half and half on food costs. As you see, I need help. My husband and I are truly in love. —Hard-worked Wife

Dear Hard-worked: You are battling your head against a stone wall if you try to reform, or live in peace with in-laws. It just won't work. The solution to your problem is money enough to finance a home of your own, even if it's only one room. In- stead of forever picking up af- ter those untidy in-laws, why not get a job that pays? Being an experienced housekeeper you could find profitable work in managing other people's homes. Put an ad in the newspaper of- fering your services at $1.75 an hour as housekeeper and meal planner. You might also offer to do the marketing at an ad- ditional 50 cents an hour. If you like homemaking, which you apparently do, why not make a career of it by taking suc- cessive courses at your local high school in home economics, domestic science, dietetics and catering? As you improve, raise your fee. My leaflet, "Better Home Management," might also be useful. A stamped, self-addressed envelope will bring it to you.

Dear Helen: I used to go with a boy who was pet happy and I don't mean dogs or cats. I gave him up because all he wanted to do was neck. But since we broke off gossip started spread- ing rumors about what went on between us. None, of course, was true. My girl friends be- lieve me but the boys don't. My reputation has been ruined. Not having dates, I'm reduced to playing gin rummy with my parents on Saturday night. How can I change the picture? —Willing Whittier

Dear Willing: If you have done nothing wrong your rep- utation is "not" ruined. Show the gossips up by being your best, most attractive self. Aim for the highest marks in school, look- ing your prettiest and be ap- preciative of others—especially your family. Playing gin rummy with you may be as boring to them as it is for you.

Dear Helen: In a recent col- umn you advised a 13-year-old girl to forget her 18-year-old lifeguard boy friend on the grounds that his intentions were not of the best because of the difference in their ages.

Speaking from personal ex- perience, I can't go along with that statement. When I was 15 I fell in love with a boy of 21 and he with me but the differ- ence in our ages held us back. It almost broke our hearts as we stopped seeing one another so, right or wrong, we resumed dating. I am now 18, he 24, and we are soon to be married. We often think of the happiness we would surely have missed had we given each other up. —Younger But Happy

Dear Younger: You and your boy friend are the exception to the rule. By you continue to prove so after your marriage!

Have your a problem? Per- haps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed enve- lope.

Ann Kenyon: Surgeon

By Adeline McElfresh

Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn. © 1960 Adeline McElfresh XXVI

The patient was wheeled in from the anesthesia room and almost simultaneously the hurried lab technician stuck her head in the door to say he was type A and that she had one donor in the lab and two more on the way, if they needed them. Ann thanked her. Three should do it, but oh! for a blood bank! she was mourning when Dr. Lyle discarded the X-rays. "Is everything ready, Doctor?" he asked.

"I think so," she added, "We will have 500 c.c.'s of type A for transfusion in a few minutes."

An expression flickered through the pale eyes. "Very well."

It was a long night. Closing the incision, and suturing . . . the direct bone wiring that was necessary to secure the little girl's fractured mandible . . . keeping vigil at the shock patient's side, willing at least a line of color into the grayness that suffused the thin, unconscious face of the man on whom Dr. Lyle had operated and then, in desperation when it didn't come, ordering another 500 c.c.'s of blood. Dawn was gathering, mist-tinted and mother-of-pearl, in the east when she went down to the hospital kitchen for a cup of the coffee that, word had been passed along, was there if she wanted it.

Dave Clyde and Peter McDonnell were there, already drinking theirs.

Dr. McDonnell cradled his half-empty coffee mug in both hands, studying its depths as if the answer were concealed there. After a time he said, "He should be responding," and Ann nodded. He should be . . . but he wasn't, and Peter was as concerned as she was.

"I'm worried, Dave."

"He should be Doc Lyle's worry. Some day somebody is going to prick that man's pomposity with one of his own scalpels."
